Mrs.S.Nithya belongs to lower middle class family. Her father was a milkman in their village. She completed her higher secondary education. Her husband was military personnel. He retired in 2007, and was earning his living by driving buses and Lorries. It did not go well as they planned. So they shifted to Perambalur and were managing their livelihood.

Mrs.Nithya was all alone in the house when her husband was away for the work. She learned tailoring and was earning a little income out of it. At the time three of her friends decided to learn Aari work at Trichy. At that time one of their common friends suggested that the Aari work training is taught freely at Perambalur RSETI. They have not heard of RSETI till then. They visited the Institute to know whether the information is correct.

They met the Director who explained the rules and regulation and eligibility qualification. All the candidates submitted the application and joined the 21 day Jardosi and Maggam Course, which was handled by Mrs.Sabitha Rani. She learnt the art well and speedily and tried different designs, colours and patterns. After completing the course she started working from home and earned income. She contacted many of her customers and impressed upon them with her perfect stitches and designing.

Her neighbours encouraged her and supported her well. Soon her business grew in multi dimension and her income soon touched Rs.10000 /-per/month. Now her income has consolidated and is an important component in her family income. She has expressed her gratitude to the RSETI and the Director.

She is bubbling with confidence and is happily running the business positively
